Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Organization and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Organization has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by Internal Revenue Service. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Organization, and has concluded that as of June 30, 2015, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Organization is generally no longer subject to tax examinations relating to US federal tax returns for years prior to 2012.
